REDMOND BURKE THEIR VICTIM.

He had for years been extremely cruel to his family, and was given three days in which to leave or worse. A blow sick was tied around his neck and live twisted out of him.

BUTTERFIELD, Mo., Sept. 18.—Redmond Burke, residing in the south part of town, has for years past been extremely vicious toward his family, beating them and often withholding even life's necessities from them. Some two weeks ago he drove his wife and little boy from the house, threatening to kill them if they ever entered the house again. Mrs. Burke went to Kansas City at Tish's court, where she has a married daughter living.

Yesterday morning about 4 o'clock Mr. J. B. Peck and J. T. Alexander, who live near Burke's home, were awakened by screams of some person as if in trouble, which was followed by heavy groans gradually dying away, but heard no words.

At daylight an examination was made, when he was found in his bed entirely lifeless, without any clothes on, but neatly covered with a quilt. The back door had been broken open, and tacked to a window, printed with a lead pencil on a piece of card board, was this notice: "Three days to leave—Redmond Burke."

Upon an examination of the body no bruises were found, but a piece of iron was tied about the neck and had been twisted tightly, showing that death had resulted from strangulation.

The deceased was about 55 years of age. There is no clue to the perpetrators of the deed.

LYNCHED AT RICH HILL.

WH. JACKSON, Colored, Strong Up for Assisting An 11-Year-Old Girl.

RICH HILL, Mo., Sept. 18.—WH. JACKSON, a negro of Kansas City, who has been working at the mines here, was lynched Saturday by a mob for a criminal assault attempted Friday upon Lizzie Davis, a child 11 years of age and the daughter of John Davis, a farmer living four miles south of Rich Hill. Jackson was taken from the jail in the afternoon by a mob of about 200 men. After being dragged outside Jackson made a full confession and tremblingly pleaded for the pangs of the crowd while a rope was being thrown about his neck. The rope was strong over a limb of a young cottonwood tree near by and willing hands quickly drew him in strangling body.

The limb broke in a few minutes under its strain, and although the body was doubtless lifeless as it fell, the crowd quickly hauled it up again and beat it till all doubt of the negro's death was over.

RYE TO BE BLOCKADED.

Supplies for the Brazilian Capital will be cut off.

BENJAMIN AYRES, Sept. 18.—News which was received from the Brazilian revolution yesterday is unfavorable to President Peixoto. It is reported that the naval squadrons sent to quell the revolutionary uprising in Rio Grande do Sul have resailed. The officers refuse to take orders from anyone except Admiral Melo, who is in command of the rebel fleet. The bombardment of the ships of the revolted squadron and the forts. President Peixoto threw many officers of the army into jail to prevent them joining the revolutionists.

Disputes over private wires state that the rebels hold Nieherd.

They have complete control of the arsenal and custom houses. Three steamers of the Royal Lloyd and a battalion of marine infantry had given over to Mello. The report of the session of the states of Bahia and Pernambuco has been confirmed. Admiral Melo now has a squadron of thirty warships and merchant steamers which are all well supplied.

The damage resulting from the bombardment was much more serious than has been heretofore reported. Many persons were killed, including an Italian sailor, for whom the government paid $2,000 indemnity.

Admiral Melo proposes to blockade Rio and starve the capital into submission by cutting off all her supplies.
